CONSTRUCTION PROCEEDS—Despite record-breaking cold weather and snow, construction is proceeding on a $1,000,000 manufacturing and office facility being built by the H.F. Campbell Co. in Romulus Township for Federal Screw Works, a manufacturer of fasteners, screw machine products and cold extrusion parts largely for the automotive industry. The 100,000 square foot plant, located on a 38-acre tract at Goddard and Wayne Roads near I-94, is Federal Screw Works' second building on the site. The adjacent steel processing division, also built by the H.F. Campbell Co. opened in 1968. The new building is part of Federal Screw Works $3,500,000 expansion program that also includes the purchase of a large amount of new machinery for the firm's Detroit plant at 3401 Martin Avenue.

Tighter Control Over Refuse Disposal Sought By Mahalak

ROMULUS—A bill which would tighten restrictions on refuse disposal has been introduced in the House of Representatives by State Representative Edward E. Mahalak (D) Romulus.

"This is a piece of legislation vital to public health and sanitation in Michigan," Mahalak said. "As our population grows and urban areas expand, this collection and disposal of thousands of tons of refuse can be a major problem. Unless we take positive action now to carefully regulate it, the situation will get completely out of hand just by nature of the size and scope of the job."

The Mahalak bill would license truckers who collect and dispose refuse and spells out definitions of refuse transfer stations and disposal areas.

Under the Mahalak proposal, after Jan. 1, 1971, all trucks or other vehicles which collect and carry refuse must carry a State Department of Health license. There would have to be on the side of the vehicle an insignia which designates the year for which the license is issued.

The state licenses would not be necessary for trucks licensed by local governments with ordinances with requirements at least equal to the state act.

Truck bodies used for the collection of refuse would have to be completely enclosed and constructed so that they cannot leak or spill. The trucks would have to be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition and as free from offensive odor as possible.

The trucks could not be parked on any street or alley any longer than is reasonable necessary to collect refuse. Licenses could be suspended by the State Health Department if collection work or equipment is inferior, unworkmanlike or unhygienic.

The Mahalak bill defines a refuse transfer facility as land or a building used in the rehandling or storage of refuse on a temporary basis and a refuse processing plant as land or a building used to process refuse, separate materials for salvage or disposal, or both.

"This bill clearly spells out what is needed in the way of the licensing and regulation of refuse collectors," Mahalak said. "It is a necessary addition to earlier laws which regulate garbage and refuse dumps."

The Legislature enacted in 1965 a bill introduced by Mahalak which established minimum regulations for garbage and refuse disposal areas, as established by state and local health departments.

School Board Sets Millage Vote Date

Voters Decide Issues April 6

BY HENRY CANTIN

ROMULUS—The Romulus Community School District will hold a millage election on April 6, Robert L. McConeghy, school superintendent, announced Monday.

The election date, authorized by the Board of Education has been approved by the Wayne County Elections Commission.

School district voters will be asked to approve a nine mill renewal that is expiring with the collection of the 1969 school tax.

Also up for voter approval will be a proposed bond proposition calling for the issuance of $11,000,000 in bonds for the school district's proposed 1970 building program.

The State Department of Education has already approved the proposed bond issue, the "largest ever proposed in the history of the school district," McConeghy reported.

Voter approval of the millage renewal and the bond issue will mean present programs will continue and the planned and future programs of the school district can be met," McConeghy said.

A disapproval by the voters will mean curtailment of various educational services and related programs, he added.

Under the requests and recommendations submitted to the school board some time ago, the proposed 1970 building program for the school district had a total approximate cost of $10,617,000, McConeghy reported.

He stated that the proposed bond issue will be used to finance the construction of "necessary" building program, although the "biggest in the history of the school system, is due to a large extent to the tremendous rise in school building costs."

The proposed projects in the recommended building program have various completion dates that the bond issue, if approved by the voters, would not have to be sold during the 1970-71 school year but carried over a two to three year period.

By so doing, McConeghy added, the mill levy would only be determined by the amount of the bond issue (Continued on Page 3A)

Charter Group Studies Final Draft

ROMULUS—The Romulus Charter Commission is currently going over the final copy of the city charter for Romulus.

Chapter I through IV has been completely gone over and approved tentatively to an overall vote on the entire charter.

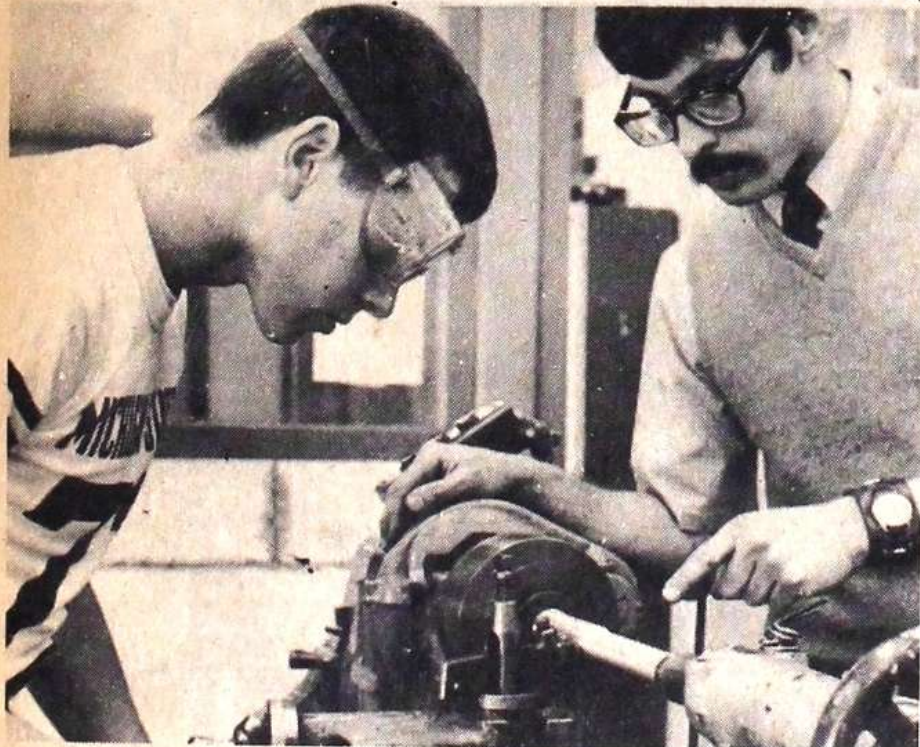

The date of May 7 for the charter election has been requested County elections commission, a Thursday, so as not to conflict with a school election date.

Action was taken to remove Mrs. Mickie Lopota as Secretary of the Commission due to sickness and medical reasons. She was replaced by Arthur Dittmar, who can be available for the signing of necessary papers and make provision for printing, etc.

Charles Dick was appointed to take the office of Commission Vice Chairman being vacated by Dittmar.

The Charter Commission's next meeting is tonight at the Water and Sanitation Building, Shook and Bibbins, Streets, across from the postoffice. The time is 7:30 p.m.

Police Break Romulus Fight

ROMULUS—Police officers from surrounding communities, assisted by State Police from the Ypsilanti Post, acted quickly Saturday night and broke up a disturbance that could have turned into a "riot" on the grounds of Romulus Senior High School.

Following a basketball game between Romulus High School and Wayne Memorial High School, won by Romulus, students from both schools began an argument. A large gathering of students was soon formed.

Some students began throwing rocks and bottles around. It was reported that the fight was a continuance of one that started when Romulus High played Wayne Memorial High during the end of the football season. Romulus students claimed they were not treated right.

Members of the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol, Romulus, Wayne and Westland police officers and state police arrived on the scene and soon broke up the crowd.

Captain John DeVoss, of the sheriff's road patrol, reported that three students were arrested when they failed to heed officers' demands to disperse.

3 Wait Decision

ROMULUS—District Court Judge James B. Stone of the 34th District Court has under advisement testimony received at the examination of three men charged with larceny by conversion in the non-return of monies collected in the Little League Candy Sale held in Romulus last June.

The three men awaiting the court's ruling on whether or not they are to stand trial in Wayne County Circuit Court are:

Walter Worden, 35, of 30730 Dorest James Grizzle

Tourists in Greece often notice native men apparently counting the beads of what appears to be a rosary, but there is no religious significance. The beads are called "worry beads" and clicking them together is said to relieve nervous tension.

Nurses Needed Measles Clinics To Be Held Feb. 16

ROMULUS—Measles clinics will be held in all Romulus elementary schools on Monday, (Feb. 16,) and volunteer licensed practical and registered nurses are badly needed. Mrs. Eleanor Maw, Romulus School Nurse, reported.

The spring of 1970 is expected to be the beginning of an epidemic period that will sweep the nation. In order to alleviate the dangers of contagion among children and the exposure of pregnant women, a statewide program of immunization is planned.

Shortages of vaccine have delayed the clinic, previously planned for December, but once again supplies are sufficient to offer the free immunization to all children, grades kindergarten through three, with parental consent.

If you are a licensed practical or registered nurse and are willing to help at one of the elementary schools from 8:30 a.m. until early afternoon on Monday, (Feb. 16) please call Mrs. Maw at 722-4050

Most worthwhile undertakings have a way of remaining beneath the surface of public acclaim. They cement society together in an entity that we call civilization.

One of the most worthwhile undertakings is that honored institution, the Boy Scouts of America. Between Feb. 5 and 13, 1970, over 2 million Boy Scouts in 70,000 troops will celebrate the 60th anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scout movement in the United States.

This year, as the Scouts observe their week, national attention will be drawn to the simple and elementary principles that make civilization possible. These principles are embraced in the Scout law.

The tenets of Scout law go far beyond the world of the Boy Scout. They are the premises of our daily existence. According to Scout law, a Scout is trustworthy. A Scout is loyal to his home, parents and country. A Scout is helpful. A Scout is friendly and courteous. He is kind. He is obedient. He is cheerful. He is thrifty. A Scout is brave and clean in body and thought. Finally, a Scout is reverent.

As we join in helping the Scouts observe Boy Scout Week this year, it is well to pay tribute, among other things, to the Scout law-and emulate it if we can. Judging by their past behavior, it will be quite a task for a lot of people.

Chamber Issues Warnings On Swindlers, Con-Artists

BELLEVILLE-Swindlers and con artists can be found in all parts of the country and are constantly looking for victims, police reported.

The Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce's Better Business Division in its program to stamp out such criminal activities issued a few of the operations and fraudulent schemes used to fleece money from their victims.

The chamber urged residents and its members to be always on the alert for the following:

STOP-if someone calls claiming to be a bank examiner or police officer telling you they are trying to catch a dishonest teller, and asks you to withdraw some money from your account for them to redeposit.

STOP-if someone tells you they have just found some money and want to share it with you. All you have to do is put up some of your money to show good faith.

STOP-if someone offers to bless your money, remove a curse from it, or perform a ritual which will cause it to double in value.

Many people fall for swindles like this, never realizing until too late that they are victims of clever con artists.

Remember if someone offers you something for

PCHA Directors Boost Pay Raises

To Cost $1,683,300

Payroll increases continue to be a major factor in the rising cost of hospital care.

PCHA directors approved a payroll package at its January meeting that will boost wages, salaries and fringe benefits for all Authority employees a total of $1,683,300.

The increase, when it becomes effective, will mean a PCHA payroll of $15,700,000 for the fiscal year of 1970. This represents 70 per cent of the Authority's annual budget.

Fringe benefits alone amounted to nearly one-quarter million dollars ($243,700). These include improvements in longevity pay rates, Blue Cross coverage, and retirement benefits.

Authority administrators estimated that the total payroll package will mean an additional cost per patient day of $5.81, but they reported that no immediate increase in room service rates is contemplated for PCHA unit hospitals.

The wage and salary portion of the new PCHA payroll package, amounting to nearly $1 1/2 million, will provide for such items as increases in straight pay rates, for increases in afternoon and shift differentials, as well as for higher week-end shift differentials.

For example, all hourly rated employees will receive an increase of 25 cents per hour across the board, and registered staff nurses will get a raise of $50 a month.

H. E. Davenport Serving Marines

BELLEVILLE-Marine Private First Class Harlan E. Davenport, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey C. Davenport of 48895 Bemis Road, is serving at Marine Corps Base, Twenty-Nine Palms, Calif.

Increases in Blue Cross benefits, as another example, ranged from $13.50 per month for hourly rated employee to full premium, from $15 a month to full premium for salaried employees. The increase in Blue Cross cost alone amounts to $150,000 a year.

LIFE HEALTH

Bursitis

The searing pain of bursitis appears to flow through the entire body. There seems to be no time, no position, no situation where the body can enjoy a second of real comfort. But, the chiropractor, skillfully and using scientific methods, traces the pain to its source - a microscopic section of the body's vast nerve system. A tiny pressure, or impingement, is affecting the proper function of an important part of the body's nervous system. The area served by the impinged nerve is not functioning normally and properly. Through gentle, scientific adjustments the chiropractor's skilled hands adjust spinal alignment and free the nerve from its restricting pressure. Vital nerve energy begins to flow through the released nerve to the affected area; enabling it to resume its normal function. Released from the pressure imposed by the obstructed nerve, nature goes to work from within to restore health. Another Health and Life Article from the Office of:

Romulus' Area PTA Units Attend Session

ROMULUS—All units of the Romulus Area PTA Council were present at their meeting of Jan. 27 held at Gordonier Elementary School.

Guests included Alton Shelley of the Family and Neighborhood Services Agency, Mrs. Florence Klein of the Helping Hand Thrift Shop, and Robert L. McConeghy, superintendent of schools.

Council president, Mrs. Judy Gruber, introduced March of Dimes poster child, Kimberly Krolczyk, who attended with her parents to emphasize the work being done by the March of Dimes in the area of birth defects.

Minutes were read and reports given. A plea was delivered in behalf of Mrs. Eleanore Maw, school nurse, for licensed practical and registered nurses to assist with the measles clinic to be held on Monday, (Feb. 16,) in all elementary schools. It was further requested that each PTA be responsible for six helpers, to begin at 8:30 a.m. on the day of the inoculations.

Mrs. Gruber disclosed that School Social Worker, Mrs. May Cole, was patient at Seaway Hospital in Trenton, and urged her friends to remember her with cards.

A meeting of the Policy Advisory Council for State and Federal Programs was announced for Feb. 19, in the library of the Romulus Junior High School.

Mrs. Florence Klein of the Helping Hand Thrift Shop, asked that a chairman be appointed from each unit to work with the Thrift Shop in obtaining and distributing clothes and other items. She displayed garments which had been especially made for the shop.

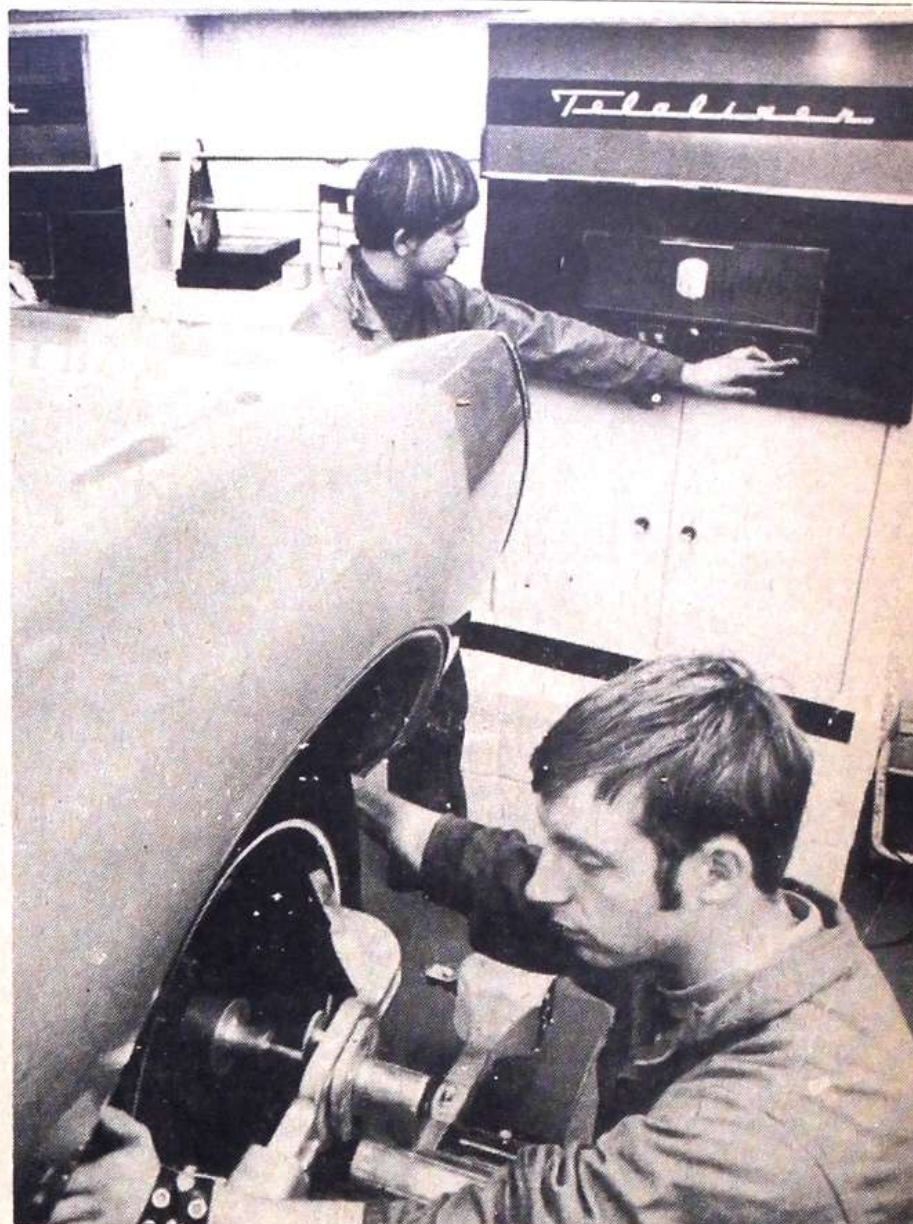

A nominating committee was selected, and a committee was appointed to make plans for the Annual Installation Dinner.

New Driver Manual Developed

Secretary of State James W. Hare has announced that a new driver manual has been prepared by the Department of State for Michigan's ever-growing multitude of licensed drivers.

distributed 500,000 into the field to all sections of Michigan," said Hare, "but our driver bureaus indicate that available supplies have already been gobbled up."

He said that an additional half-million will be printed and distributed "shortly" probably in February.

"Our state driver manual tops the state's 'best seller list,'" notes Hare. "People must read this important book to pass the examination which permits them to become licensed drivers."

"Beyond the beginning driver, I would urge every licensed driver in Michigan to obtain and read a copy of this book. There is no charge."

The new 80-page, full-color edition of "What Every Driver Must Know" is a complete revision of the previous Michigan driver manual. It took eight months in production.

"Because of increasing competition in printed communications, our Department felt it imperative that we have modern, effective design in the manual. We wanted to motivate our readers to become involved in this new manual."

The book is divided into three sections allowing readers to quickly find important driver information.

The first section is devoted to "what drivers have to know to pass the Michigan driver examination."

The next section explains "how the state's point system works." And the final section provides important basic general information that all licensed drivers ought know.

pointed out: "We want higher scores on the written portion of our driver examination and increased driver knowledge of safe driving practices."

A Department of State survey shows the majority of state driver guide books are not well designed and do not effectively communicate safe driving procedures.

New Firm

ROMULUS—A complete coin-operated laundry and dry cleaning establishment has opened in Romulus.

The new business venture known as The Wash Tub is located at 37500 Huron River Drive. It is owned and operated by Louis M. Blitz, of 23041 Beverly, Oak Park, Mich.

Grand opening festivities are scheduled for a later date.

The Wash Tub has a drive-in service window and a carpeted lounge surrounded by the "most modern laundry equipment" available.

Hours, until further notice, are from 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. seven days a week.

Blitz also operates the Five Point Car Wash and the L.M. Variety Store, both located in Romulus.

"The survey told us that usually driver manuals have no visible purpose," Hare said.

"They lack unity between printed, illustrated, and photographed parts. Illustrated material lacks the simplicity important to visual communication. In fact, the art and design in many handbooks magnify the problem of 'not getting the message over to the driver.'"

According to Hare, the Department of State successfully overcame most of these problems in the new "What Every Driver Must Know."

Consider these aspects of the new driver manual:

*Each manuscript part tested for readability by Michigan high school students before printing.

*Condensed, easy-to-read explanations of Michigan traffic laws.

Millage

Projects proposed by school administrators include two new elementary schools, additional classrooms to existing facilities, new junior high school, and other building facilities required to meet the steady growth of the school district.

The present school tax levy is 31.6 mills per $1,000 of assessed property valuation, state equalized.

This levy includes 26.6 mills for operations and five mills for debt retirement.

The nine mills expiring with the 1969 tax collection consisted of four mills voted in June, 1969 for one year and five mills voted in June, 1965 for five years.

PCHA Aide Joins U-M

ANN ARBOR—Louis Graff joined the University of Michigan on Monday (Feb. 2) as director of health sciences information. The appointment was announced by Michael Radock, vice-president for the University relations and development.

Graff has been active in the health education and information field for nearly 20 years. Earlier he was assistant dean of St. John's College in Annapolis, Md., and English master of Cranbrook School in Bloomfield Hills.

As health science writer for the U-M News Service between 1950 and 1955, Graff was press secretary to the late Dr. Thomas Francis Jr. during the year of the field trials of the Salk polio vaccine. Graff's report, the first public announcement of the effectiveness of the vaccine, was distributed to one of the largest medical press conferences ever held.

Graff, a native of Michigan and resident of Ann Arbor, also served as the director of public relations for Michigan Blue Cross-Blue Shield. He then established his own hospital-medical public relations consulting firm which represented Minnesota Blue Shield and Detroit's Grace, Harper, Cottage, and St. John's hospitals.

He also was counsel to the People's Community Hospital Authority, the Michigan Community Blood Center, and the Greater Detroit Area Hospital Council.

Born and raised in Kalamazoo, Graff took his undergraduate studies at U-M and Kalamazoo College. He left graduate study at the University of Chicago to join the U.S. Maritime Academy. He resumed work in Chicago at U-M while an instructor at Cranbrook after World War II.

"For Lou Graff to leave a successful consulting business to rejoin the University is a source of great satisfaction to all of us," said Radock.

The health sciences information assignment covers the University Medical Center, which includes the schools of medicine and nursing and University Hospital, and also the schools of public health, dentistry, and pharmacy.

Graff lives at 4400 E. Huron River Drive.

Is Metro Place Headed For Another Setback?

Wayne's urban redevelopment project has been commented on, publicly and privately, for a number of years. People were optimistic two months ago when ground-breaking ceremonies were held to kick off the project with the construction of the A&P food store.

The A&P lease specifies occupation by the first of July. According to reports, if the building is not ready by that date, A&P will not honor the lease.

Construction has supposedly been underway for more than two months. All that shows are a few stakes that stick out of the ground which mark important points. Work has been done, the question is how much.

Perhaps the cold weather has had an effect on the efforts of the Hyatt Brother's Construction Company. One thing must be kept in mind, however, there is a good chance that all of the skilled building trades will go out on strike during contract negotiations, which will take place this spring for most of the trades.

It is possible that construction could be stalled or even halted, should the workers go out over wage or benefit disputes. Would A&P still honor the lease, knowing that it would be impossible to meet the date previously agreed upon, or would they back away from the new building, which will anchor a shopping mall, and stay with the agreed terms and not occupy the building if it is not completed by July 1.

Whether the Metro Place corporation is concerned over this possibility is not known. What they would do should such a situation arise is equally unknown.

Whether A&P will honor their contract agreement if complications arise is also an unanswered question. One thing is true, the date of July 1 is in the not too distant future and the Metro Place organization should, according to agreement, have the A&P building ready for occupancy by that date.

Whether these problems will actually arise is still in question. It is a fact, however, that there is a good possibility that they will come about.

Metro Place does not need another setback. The people of the community have waited long enough for downtown Wayne to be rebuilt. Another wait would be unfair to them.

Nothing Ventured, Nothing Gained

The reassessment of land in Westland's core area, around Westland Center, is a long overdue step toward equalizing the tax burden on local residential property owners.

There is some reason to believe that the increase in assessments in this area will actually speed development of the area for commercial and office uses.

It has been the dream of many in Westland that the future might hold promise of some special kind of development for the Westland Center area, akin to the kind of development around Northland Center in Southfield.

This has never been more than a dream, but Westland has never moved strongly to challenge area developers to begin the work of building a city core for Westland.

Now we may be on the verge of finding out if that dream will come true. Chances may not be the best, but the attempt is important.

While the contribution to the community by developers has been substantial, it is only fair that the men who are to make money in Westland also contribute to its betterment in a manner equal to the contribution made by residents of the city.

It is not unreasonable to ask the owners of this highly valued land to begin pulling more of the municipal load in Westland. We won't have a better community if we don't act.

Westland residents have been generous with their community, and especially with their schools. They have earned the right to ask more of the prime commercial land owners.

Westland has been graced with more good breaks than a growing suburban community would expect. Yet it has been difficult, for many reasons, to take advantage of the best break of all — Westland Center.

Westland's ace-in-the-hole must now be played. Nothing ventured, nothing gained.

What's In A Sign?

By Dick McKnight

What's in a sign?

Inkster recently answered that question with a newly designed welcoming sign to be installed at entrances to the city.

The sign features the stylized small i and large m that has come to represent Inkster, and includes the slogan, "A Congenial Community."

There are some cynics in the crowd who are certain to say, "Congenial? Who's kidding who?"

Nuts to you guys!

The public relations man's art is so well known today, that it is amazing how little it is used by local communities. It is as simple as some clever person deciding that a new sign for the city of Inkster might lend a new mood to the community, and leave a more favorable impression with those passing through.

The new sign, as one wag puts it, "Lends a note of class to the proceedings."

Westland's new Mayor, Gene McKinney, faced a similar situation recently when he took over the executive office. The challenge was to create a new image for Westland by sprucing up the externals.

The result was, for instance, a new look for the City stationary, using the typographer's tools of new shapes and sizes in printing. The new look is an open, relaxed printing more attractive to the eye, and the addition of the Westland motto, "Pride, Progress, Promise."

The new stationary is simple and uncluttered, and therefore, more pleasant to look at. It is modern enough to indicate a new City, but traditional enough to indicate wisdom and experience. Astoundingly enough, it really works.

Mastery of the image art must go to the Plymouth community, including both the city and township. The use of the colonial theme is so extensive in the community that almost everyone who knows anything about Plymouth would connect the community with New England.

The Plymouth identity has not come about painlessly. It took a lot of work on the part of the community leaders and businessmen to create the desired image.

When Westland was trying to decide on a name for itself, some rejected the name "Westland," because it was identified with a shopping center. Others cast stones at the old name "Nankin" because it was vaguely identified with Nanking, China.

A third suggestion was to choose the name, "Nankin Mills" to give the community a quaint, rustic image. If Westland had been populated by advertising men, Nankin Mills probably would have won.

The suburban sprawl suffers for a lack of identity, just as its residents suffer as members of the masses. A name, a sign, and an image can help change that for the better.

Lift Up Your Head

DeSantis

Sets New Ballot Pace

By Rosemary Wolock

Inkster City Manager Ralph DeSantis' decision to leave for new challenges and the more exciting political climate in Troy, N.Y., has upset many a campaign appeccart in Inkster.

DeSantis, his personality and his controversial administration would have been the top campaign issues in the April municipal primary and the May election. But DeSantis will be gone before the filing date rolls around.

And while some people may yet vote on the basis of which candidates supported DeSantis and which opposed him, other issues will have to be found.

Without DeSantis to attack or defend the candidates may have to reveal their solutions to the problems that face Inkster. How would John Q. Candidate provide better police, fire and public works services within the limitations of Inkster's financial situation.

Or perhaps the election will lapse into a mere personality contest, with candidates competing on the basis of name, looks, social position, club and church affiliations.

It would be a shame if this were so because Inkster will face its greatest challenges within the coming years. One of these challenges is to be the best kind of city it can possibly be. This means that the people of Inkster must use every resource.

I'm sure it's the latter type of race that most politicians prefer, particularly since Inkster's problems are such tough ones and do not lend themselves to easy solutions.

But with this election the city of Inkster will choose its leadership for the opening of the 70's, undoubtedly one of the most challenging periods the city will ever see.

The city of Inkster, I believe, has two challenges: one is to use every resource possible, financial and human, to make Inkster as pleasant a place to live as possible. The other challenge is to show other communities that black and white people can live together successfully.

Solid administrative leadership will be needed to make the first challenge a reality. In addition, help will be needed from the private sector—from civic and service clubs and fraternal organizations, as well as a reviewed Chamber of Commerce.

The second challenge can only be met by men with a broad-minded rational approach to race relations. How bad things could get has been amply exemplified in the Westwood School District. But it should not be fear that motivates the community's leaders. Instead they ought to be fired with a desire to make Inkster an exemplary city.

Just In Passing

Our World Gets Smaller

By Kay DeBord

I suppose that if everyone (like me) would admit it—when we refer to "today's world"—we mean that tight little circle of people and events of our immediate concern.

I'm not saying that we are oblivious of the real problems confronting the world around us—it's just that we don't know just what to do about them so we turn our attention to the little world that makes up the family, home and job.

And through the years—the circle—or boundaries of our life gets smaller and smaller. So do family ties get looser and looser.

With most families of today—family "togetherness" comes only with weddings and funerals—and sad to relate—it's mainly the funerals that remind us that the circle is getting smaller.

There was a funeral in my family, recently, and I discovered that cousins that I had failed to keep in touch with since childhood were really nice people, and I had missed knowing them.

There were their children, too,—and their families—people I could have been very fond of if I had just exerted myself a little.

And they, seemingly, felt the same.

It was a funeral—and we were sad—but still we had to exchange news of family and activities and look at each others' snapshots.

We all made sure we had up to date addresses for each other and vowed we'd get together again, soon.

We were warm with the feeling of discovery that we were a part of a larger family, and that we had many things in common besides blood ties.

We were all sincere. There's no doubt about that! But, in our hearts I think we all knew that once we were home again and immersed in our own interests we would let the time slip by—until we were once again reunited at another funeral—or more happily—a wedding in the family.

Sitting Bill

A Citizen's Eye View

By Bill Pomeroy

"Your license, please?" asked the young Westland police officer.

"Whaddaya mean shtopping me, I gots ta get home 'fore 10 o'clock."

"What did you say?" the officer mumbled, scratching his head with his right forefinger.

"Whatcha doing? Ya got a gun hidden in yer hat?"

"What?" The officer quizzed.

"I knoz about you Westland guys. I read da papers. I gotcha figured out? I knoz, I knoz," he chuckled. "But dontcha worry, nothin bad'll come from me," he said, his forefinger pressed against his lips in mock silence.

"Okay. Enough is enough. Out of the car," the young man demanded.

"Whatcha gonna do, watcha gonna do ta me?" Out the man wobbled, stretching his hands exaggeratedly over his head.

"Put 'em down and turn around."

"Nosir, ain't gonna turn my back on ya."

"Move."

"Can't see what ya gonna do ta me den." An open bottle of whiskey swayed in his overcoat pocket.

"Is that a bottle of whiskey?"

"Shore is, Iffen it ain't, I'm drunkern I thought."

"You were weaving all over the road."

"Naw, I don't knit." Both men laughed.

"Let me see your license."

"Gonna give me a ticket?"

"Have to."

"Aw, come on. I won't weave any more," he said, smiling again when he said "weave."

As the officer wrote out the ticket, the citizen read the riot act of "paying taxes for his pay, discriminating against short guys, pushing his authority" and ten minutes more.

"Hurry up. It's getting close to ten. Gotta get home," he said sobering up some.

"I'm going to follow you for awhile to see that you're taking care."

"Heck, no. I don't want no cop following me. Give me a bad rep with my friends."

"I could take you in and have someone pick you up."

"Naw, naw, I know what ya do in the back rooms. Gotta big ugly guy with a club with my name written on it."

Naw sir. Don't want no back room stuff. I'll take care."

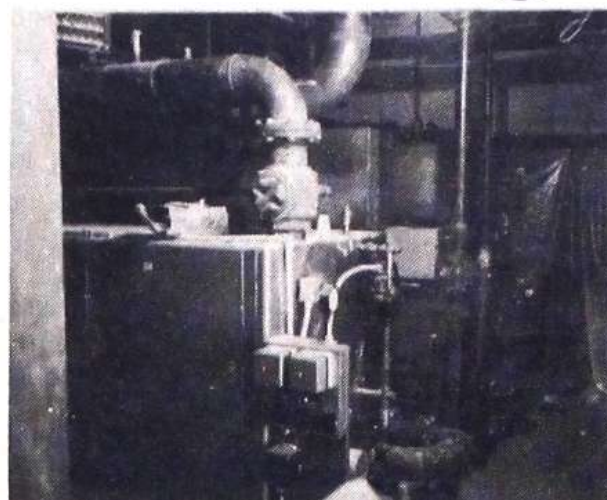

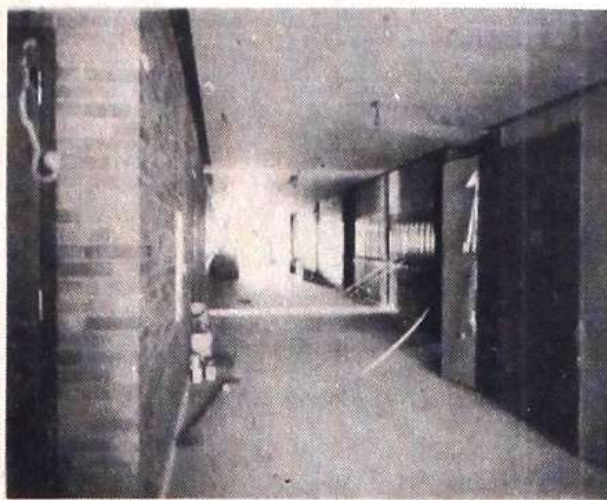

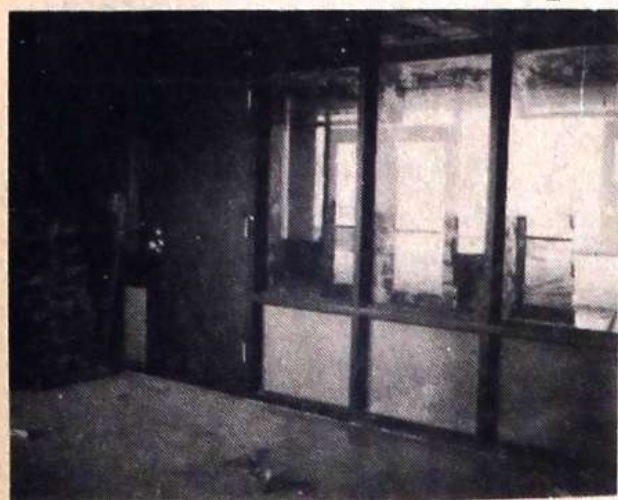

"I'll follow you, and take it slow. Okay?" But

"I'll be late for my TV show."

"Which one is that?"

"Adam 12. Nice cops. You guys probably don't like it, not much blood. Just everyday routine." He was getting mad. "They know how to treat a citizen, with respect. You guys ain't got no respect. You guys oughta watch it. Learn something."

Public Hearing Set On Student Grievance Bill

State Representative Vincent J. Pettipren (D-Westland) has invited all concerned citizens, students and Administrators of higher education, to attend the first in a series of state-wide public hearings to discuss House Bill 3901 which would establish student grievance committees at all of the state's institutions of higher learning.

Pettipren, chairman of the House Committee on Colleges and Universities, scheduled the hearing for Friday, (Feb. 6) at 2 p.m. in room 420-D on the fourth floor of the Capitol Building in Lansing.

"Many feel that there is a need for sound legislative action to ease the tensions which have seriously interfered with the process of personal and intellectual growth which ought to prevail at our colleges and universities," Pettipren said. "But I believe very strongly that legislators must consult with the people to determine what approach is truly appropriate to the Legislature in this very delicate area of public concern."

The Committees which would be established under H.B. 3901, introduced by Representative George F. Montgomery, would be composed entirely of students who would conduct fact-finding investigations and make recommendations to the administration or even fully adjudicate all campus grievances. These grievances would be submitted to the committees in writing by students, faculty, administrators or other employees on their respective campuses.

"This bill represents a legislative attempt to grant students greater responsibility for the resolution of those campus challenges with which all of us who share an interest in higher education are concerned," Pettipren said. "I am convinced that by working together, students, legislators and the public at large can meet those challenges effectively. And so I strongly urge all interested citizens, students and Administrators of higher education, to begin this effort with us at the public hearing on Feb. 6."

Romulus High Plans For Trouble Shooting Contest

ROMULUS—The annual search for America's top young auto mechanics is under way.

Auto mechanic students from schools across the country including a team from Romulus Senior High School are entering the 22nd annual Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest, Gerald Nault, principal of Romulus Senior High School, announced.

All 150 students in Romulus' auto mechanics classes are eligible for their school's Trouble Shooting team.

Two auto mechanic students will be selected for the team through intraclass competition by E. L. Sheffield, the auto shop instructor, to represent Romulus Senior High School at the local Trouble Shooting Contest to be held May 15 at Wonderland Shopping Center.

The contest consists of two competitions: a written exam for each participating student which will count as 30 percent of a team's final score, and a mechanical challenge worth 70 percent.

In the mechanical competition students work on new cars supplied by local Plymouth dealers who sponsor the event.

The boys race the clock and each other to find and fix several identical malfunctions purposely placed under the hoods of the cars by Plymouth engineers.

The Southeastern Michigan contest is one of about 100 local events being held across the country this spring.

The winning team and its instructor earn an expense-paid trip to the National Trouble Shooting Finals June 15, 16, and 17 in Indianapolis at the famed "500" Speedway.

Contestants are competing for more than $125,000 worth of scholarships and awards.

SHOP AREA—When the new junior high opens in September students will have available the latest in shop facilities. A portion of the shop area of the new school is shown above. The new educational facility is a result of planning by "total involvement" to meet specific educational requirements of the school district.

Honeymoon In Puerto Rico

Dr. David Boyd, Linda Derby Wed In MSU Chapel

Red and white blossoms, white pine, and holly were used as altar appointments for the winter wedding of Linda Kay Derby of Portland, Michigan and Dr. David J. Boyd, of Staten Island, New York.

The Alumni Chapel at Michigan State University, East Lansing, was reserved for the double ring ceremony which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Derby, of Portland, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard R. Boyd, of Belleville.

The Rev. Wilson Wood read the nuptial ceremony at 12 noon with some 100 persons in attendance. Dr. Arnold of the Lansing People's Church provided traditional music for the wedding.

ESCORTED UP the aisle by her father, Linda appeared in a toe-touching creation of antique satin, chiffon and lace with full, wrist-length sleeves.

Her bouffant veil drifted to mid-back length from a flowered band and she held an arrangement of red antheriums, white pine and holly.

As her sister's maid of honor, Mary Jane Derby donned a gown of red velvet and chiffon and carried a bouquet of white pine and holly.

Attendants in identical ensembles were Jane White of Fort Collins, Colorado, and Jean Balderson, of Bethesda, Maryland.

Chris Boyd was his brother's best man and others on the esquire side were Richard Wobont, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Robert Scharp of Ann Arbor.

AT THE RECEPTION which followed in the Red Cedar Room of the M.S.U. Kellogg Center, Mrs. Derby received in a pink wool costume with brown mink trim and corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Boyd chose for her son's wedding, a pale blue silk ensemble. Her corsage was comprised of yellow roses.

Guests attending arrived from Hamilton and Toronto, Ontario; Cleveland, Ohio; Chicago, Illinois; Silver Springs and Bethesda, Maryland; Fort Collins, Colorado; Minneapolis, Minnesota; New York City; Los Angeles; and area cities.

Since returning from their two weeks honeymoon in Puerto Rico, the newlyweds have made their home on Staten Island, New York.

The new Mrs. Boyd graduated from Portland High School in 1964 and from Michigan State, where she earned her B.A. degree in journalism, in 1968. She just completed studies for her Master's Degree at the University of Minnesota.

Dr. Boyd is a 1961 Belleville High School graduate who later attended Michigan State's College of Veterinary Medicine. A Captain in the U.S. Army, he is stationed at Fort Wadsworth, New York.

The rehearsal dinner was given Friday before the wedding at Dine's Restaurant in Lansing with the bridegroom's parents playing host to 30 guests.

Babies In The News

BABIES AND their baptisms are the highlights of this week's column with two making news in Belleville and another in New Boston.

At the Lilac Lane home of Mike and Elaine Habel, there was a dinner to mark the christening of their daughter, Gretchen Marie, who was born November 6 at St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Her God-parents, Steve and Cynthia Pavelka presented her to Father Ernest Javier Sunday at St. Anthony's Catholic Church. Gretchen's brother, Michael, who's six, and sister Cathi, three, were invited to assist in the service by handing the anointing oils to the priest.

The Pavelka trio, Danny David, and Diane were also on hand to witness the ceremony.

Kelly Christened

FATHER JAVIER, who comes in from Ann Arbor to assist at St. Anthony's, also administered the sacrament of baptism to little Kelly Ann Devlin. Born December 3 at Outer Drive Hospital in Lincoln Park, she is the first child of the Timothy Devlins of Sumpter Road.

The baby's uncle and aunt, Patrick Devlin and Paula Mazzola, both of Lincoln Park, were chosen to be God-parents. Following the rite the family gathered at the home of the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Devlin in Lincoln Park, for a small celebration.

At The Kormos'

KRIS ANN Kormos, pretty in her christening gown, was baptized Saturday January 24 at St. Stephen's Catholic Church with Father Alexander Wytrowski officiating. Cassandra Kormos of Britton and Joe Kormos, Jr. of Romulus were God-parents for the five-weeks old niece.

At six o'clock the baby's parents, Al and Sally Kormos, entertained at dinner in their Willis Road home. Guests were the sponsors and their mates, Kenneth Kormos and Elsie Kormos, respectively and the latter's children, Valerie and Joey; the senior Joseph Kormos', and Henry, Sandy and Marea Kormos all of Romulus; the Landy Boxes with Linda and Ron of Belleville; John Gasidlo and Mrs. Madeline Kreyger; and Johnnie Gasidlo, who was home from Central Michigan University at Mount Pleasant.

Callers later in the evening were Father Wytrowski and John and Betty Davis of Belleville. And, of course, Kris' big sisters Cheryl and Susan, and brother Albie, were on hand for the special occasion.

Party Time

THE LAST day of exams — what a good reason to celebrate! And that's just what Ron Allard and 15 of his junior high friends did on Thursday, January 22.

Bringing along their ice skates, the group spent from six to nine at the Allard's lakeside home on Potter Drive. And to augment the chilly breezes which were so prevalent that day, Ron's mother and grandmother dished out hot

Frozen Fillets Best Buy

Today's homemaker has a new ally in her struggle to balance the family food budget in the face of soaring prices. Fish, particularly frozen fillets, are very low in cost compared with other protein sources. At the same time they are high in protein, vitamins, minerals and health building amino acids.

Because there is no waste, a pound of frozen fish fillets will serve a family of two adults and two children, according to Booth Fisheries, world's largest producer and processor of frozen fish and seafood. Depending upon the variety of fillets purchased, the cost is about 15 to 20 cents per serving. Equivalent amounts of animal protein cost twice that much...or more.

MISS MEYER

Planning Autumn Nuptials

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey H. Meyer, of 2901 Ready Road, Carleton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Denise Sue, to Dennis Dale Yost, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Yost, of 2616 Will Carleton Drive, Flat Rock.

Miss Meyer is in her senior year at Airport High School and is employed by Ace Paper Products.

Her fiancé attended the same high school and is now employed as a mechanic at Lower Huron Metropolitan Park, New Boston.

A fall wedding is being planned.

Make Room Larger

Have a room in your house that gives you claustrophobia? United-DeSoto suggests that small scale wallcovering designs in light colors can make a room seem larger. Large-scale wallcovering patterns can do the trick, too, providing the designs are spaced so that a great deal of open background shows through. Stay away from strong, dark colors and elaborate, heavy designs.

Business Execs Improve "Fis(i)cal" Fitness

Along with the free-wheeling expense account and the two-martini lunch, the executive coffee break seems headed for extinction. In its place, many American businessmen are substituting a two or three minute exercise break...and are giving themselves a "break" in the process.

According to health authorities, young executives caught up in the fast-paced world of business have been running themselves down because of mental stress, excessive smoking and drinking, and insufficient rest and exercise.

Tension caused by the stress and strain of the business world is recognized as one of the major contributors to hypertension, ulcers, heart trouble and other "occupational" diseases associated with today's high-powered executive.

While a man might make his first million at an early age, he may not be in any shape to enjoy it. But by taking two to five minutes of exercise each day, advises the National Sporting Goods Association (NSGA), he can unwind and reduce the debilitating effects of tension.

NSGA is also quick to point out, however, that exercise like anything else can be overdone, particularly at the outset when the body is unaccustomed to a vigorous workout. "Moderation is the keyword here," says L.W. Cummins, the association's president.

In fact, it's not really necessary to exercise every day. The average man can whip himself into good physical shape by exercising for only a few minutes, three times a week. The value in a daily program is that it establishes good exercise habits.

More and more Americans are becoming conscious of their physical fitness; first for the health aspect, but also for the accompanying improvement in appearance, a side benefit especially important to the image-conscious executive.

Pediatrician Addresses

Jr. Study Club

The Belleville Junior Study Club held its January 21 meeting at the home of Mrs. Donald Carlson on Harmony Lane with Mrs. Don White and Mrs. Robert Kreie as co-hostesses.

Dr. Mark Hildebrandt, pediatrician from Ann Arbor, was the guest speaker, his topic being "Children's Development and Behavior." A brief business meeting followed.

Twenty-one members and two guests, Mrs. Ronald Stansifer and Mrs. Samuel Lo Presto, were present.

Picture Grouping

Achieving a unified effect is the key ingredient in an attractive picture grouping, according to the Picture and Frame Institute. The Institute suggests building your arrangement around its most important picture, which may be placed in the middle, on the top, or on the bottom of the grouping. Keep a fairly narrow space between pictures to give a feeling of one mass rather than several separate pictures. The bottom line of the grouping should be even, if possible, and the entire grouping should be balanced so that the eye flows smoothly from one picture to another.

Timely Tips On How To Roast Pork

COOKING FRESH PORK: Loins should be roasted at 325 degrees F. to 350 degrees F. until the meat thermometer registers 170 degrees F.; hams (legs), shoulder cuts until the meat thermometer registers 170 degrees F. for the boneless cut and 185 degrees F. for the bone-in cut. Steaks, porklets (cubed shoulder cutlet) and patties are usually cooked by braising or pan-frying although steaks are popular for outdoors broiling or grilling. Chops can be broiled or grilled or braised. Chops and steaks should be cooked at moderate temperature so that they are well done in the center but are not dry on the surface. To cook sausage links or patties place them in a cold frying-pan, add 2 to 4 tablespoons water, cover tightly and cook slowly 5 to 8 minutes depending on size and thickness. Pour off the drippings and cook uncovered until browned.

COOKING CURED AND SMOKED PORK: Large "cook-before-eating" cuts should be baked (roasted) at 300 degree F. to 325 degree F. until the meat thermometer registers 160 degree F. for hams; loin and Canadian-style bacon; 170 degree F. for picnic or shoulder rolls (butts). Ham and Canadian-style bacon slices and smoked chops are broiled, pan-broiled or pan-fried.

TO ROAST:

1. Season meat with salt and pepper, if desired. 2. Place meat fat side up on rack in open roasting pan. 3. Insert meat thermometer at least 2 1/2 inches into thickest part of meat at an angle so that dial is easily readable when door is opened. The point should be in the center of the largest muscle, away from contact with bone, gristle or fat. 4. Do not add water. Do not cover. 5. Roast in slow oven-300 degree F. to 350 degree F. 6. Roast to desired degree of doneness.

PORK CUTS

PORK SHOULDER CUTS are usually in less demand—they're more plentiful than such hindquarter cuts as the hams and the loins; therefore, they're usually lower priced. One of the less familiar cuts of pork—the Boston Butt—can offer real economy to budget-minded homemakers.

The BOSTON BUTT is a square or triangular piece cut from the upper half of the shoulder of pork. The fat is well distributed through the lean. There is a small bone which can be easily removed. Slices can be cut from the bone-end to make tender steaks—leaving a good-sized boneless roast.

THE SHOULDER PICNIC: is sold bone-in or boneless and rolled. It is the lower part of the shoulder and front leg. It has a higher proportion of skin and bone to lean meat than the Boston Butt.

BOTH: may be found cured and smoked. Allow 1/3 to 1/2 pound bone-in per person—1/4 to 1/3 pound boneless per serving.

A note to remember: Michigan law states that picnic shoulder may not be called "ham" or "picnic ham."

FRESH HAM: or the leg is another one of the less known cuts of pork, but it is a fine choice for a large family. It is delicate of texture and not too fat. A fresh ham may be cooked by any of the methods suitable for a pork loin roast or for a roast suckling pig. Allow 1/4 to 1/2 pound boned per serving, 1/3 to 1/2 pound bone-in per serving.

PRETTY AND APPEALING—A beautiful dessert to serve (it's eye-appeal is magnetic) Floating Island was one of the dishes often served at Thomas Jefferson's Monticello. Known then as Deuts a la Neige, it is more familiar to us as Floating Island. In this case orange juice and rind are used for that different taste. Delicately browned meringues are "floated" on the completed recipe for that elegant gourmet touch to frame an already pretty picture.

Legend says Columbus used cotton denim for sails on his famous voyage in 1492.

Put Your Hand To An Elegant Dessert Today

Orange Floating Island

Valencia oranges, which are easy to juice and section, are used for this luscious Orange Floating Island. Because they are thin-skinned and virtually seedless, they handle beautifully for any dish calling for oranges. The flavor of the creamy custard is delightfully accented by fresh orange juice and rind and will please dessert lovers everywhere. The delicately browned meringues, which top this classic dessert, project that gourmet-cook flair which wins so many compliments.

1/2 cup sugar, divided
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt, divided
2 whole eggs
2 egg yolks

1 cup evaporated milk
1 cup Florida orange juice
1 teaspoon grated Florida orange rind
2 egg whites
1 Florida orange, sectioned

Combine 1/4 cup of the sugar, flour and 1/4 teaspoon of the salt in a saucepan. Combine eggs and egg yolks, beat slightly with fork, then add the dry ingredients. Add milk and mix until well blended. Stir in orange juice and rind. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Cool. Pour into serving dish and chill. Meanwhile, add remaining 1/4 teaspoon salt to egg whites and beat until stiff, but not dry. Gradually add 1/4 cup sugar and beat until very stiff. Drop meringue by spoonfuls into shallow baking pan with bottom just covered with hot water. Bake in 350 degree F. oven about 10 minutes. Serve on chilled pudding. YIELD: 5 to 6 servings.

Reflections On Ironing

Ironing still remains the most disliked household chore, but even your ironing pad can speed it up. Select one with a metallic layer. It will reflect heat underneath fabrics as you iron, to cut ironing time. Another ironing chore easier is spray sizing. Because of its special lubricant, Magic sizing enables your iron to glide over garments sprayed with it, thus reducing ironing time. At the same time, sizing restores "like new" body and feel to garments.

Carol's Home

AT LONG last - Carol Ruff is home again! And, speaking for the entire community, we welcome her back to Belleville. The daughter of Carl and Erma Ruff of E. Huron River Drive, Carol has been a patient and in traction at Wayne County General Hospital since Labor Day of last year when she was struck by an automobile - five long months!

There's still a long convalescent period ahead of Carol before she can get back in the swing of things but it's just pretty nice to know she's able to be home to make the family complete once again.

Five Candles

NOW THAT she's five Nora Hudge can think of only one thing - she gets to go to kindergarten next fall! Turning five in the Hudge can is also reason for gathering the cousins together for a little party.

So, Saturday afternoon there was a canopy of balloons and a pretty circus-theme table awaiting the arrival of little guests. Nora's mother, Mary Anne Hudge, served cake, ice cream, jello and punch after the group had filled an hour with all kinds of 'pretend' activities.

Arriving in their prettiest party dresses, gifts in hand, were Valerie, Karen and Terry Sierota, Liz and Melissa Stapleton, Laurie Pieknik, Sheryl Hudge, and Carol Smith, all of Belleville, and Nora's cousins from Wyandotte, Shelly and Liz Kane. Tommie and Gary Hudge lent a 'man's touch' to the festivities, and older cousins Judy Hudge and Susie Smith, and Nora's big sister Nancy, completed the picture.

Rev. Cook To Leave For Saginaw Pastorate

By JAMES BRADLEY

WESTLAND--The Rev. Francis W. Cook will preach his last sermon at Norwayne Baptist Church in Westland at 11 a.m. Sunday.

It will be a message delivered with mixed emotions.

The reason for the emotional twinge will be his leaving to accept a pastorate at Calvary Baptist Church in Saginaw after seven years at Norwayne Baptist.

"We've pondered this call for about a year now," Mr. Cook explained. "And, after much prayer, we feel it is God's will for us to go."

"It will not be easy leaving all the friends we have made in this area," he said.

His wife, Margaret, shares her husband's feelings.

"It has been a tremendous experience sharing God's word with the fine people here, and moving to a new city means starting all over again," she said.

"In fact, we don't even know how many members the new church has," she laughed. "We both feel, however, it will be an exciting challenge."

Besides serving as pastor of Norwayne Baptist, Mr. Cook was very active in other ministerial activities.

Throughout his residence in Westland, he served as a chaplain at Annapolis Hospital. Along with several other ministers he organized a 10-day training class to prepare ministers wishing to become chaplains.

Mr. Cook is president of the Wayne-Westland Ministerial Association for 1969-70. He also held the position of trustee in the Detroit Association of American Baptist Churches for several years.

Teaching was a sideline Mrs. Cook loved. A substitute teacher in Wayne Community School District, he taught a special education class at Vandenberg Elementary School for one year.

Mr. Cook received his Bachelor of Science degree from Minot State College, Minot, N.D.

He later attended Eastern Theological Seminary in Philadelphia, where he earned a Bachelor of Divinity degree.

Previously there was no provision for an interest rate above 5% on consumer-type deposits of less than $100,000. The one-year and two-year instruments that may now be offered by member banks at the 5.50% and 5.75% maximum rates respectively must be single-dated maturities.

*Multiple-maturity Certificates of Deposit include deposits that are automatically renewable at maturity without action by the depositor and deposits that are payable after 90 day written notice of withdrawal. This is the maximum allowable interest authorized under Federal Reserve Board regulations.

Single maturity Certificates of Deposit include deposits on which no additional interest may be paid after the maturity date. The matured certificate must be presented for redemption. A new certificate must be issued to reinvest the funds. This is the maximum allowable interest authorized under Federal Reserve Board regulations.

Your Secret

In the U.S., the generally accepted qualifications for voting are U.S. citizenship, certain residency requirements and the stipulation that voters be 21 years old.

Some think even these requirements are too stringent. They advocate that the voting age be lowered to 18. Thus, it is interesting to look at the voting requirements in other countries.

In Switzerland and Honduras you must be a male to vote. In Southern Rhodesia all voters must have adequate knowledge of English and the ability to fill in the claim for enrollment as a voter. In addition, one must occupy property valued at 500 pounds for the three months prior to registration, or own a registered mining location, or have an income of not less than 240 pounds a year.

YOUR FINANCIAL situation also plays a role in qualifying in Tanganyika, Trinidad, Tobago and other countries where constitutions prohibit bankrupt people from voting.

Until 1961, Denmark disenfranchised citizens who were receiving public assistance. In Great Britain members of the House of Lords have no vote, and in Kuwait members of the armed forces and the police department have no vote. In Russia, the state registers the voter automatically. If the voter casts his vote for the party candidate, he is a loyal citizen. If not, he is an enemy of the regime.

The secret ballot, as enjoyed by the people of the U.S., is a right and a privilege that carries a heavy responsibility.

Hospital To Offer Hearing Rehabilitation

The classes will begin at 1 p.m. on Feb. 6, if sufficient number apply. The fee for the course will be $10 or $1 each lesson. This includes the hearing test.

There was also a complaint about hockey being played on the rinks. We will have signed up to divide the time between hockey and skating.

Hink suggested that the clerk send the two fire departments a letter of appreciation for making the skating rinks. Motion Passed.

Motion Hink, supported Hogan, to pay bills as per voucher. Carried unanimously.

Motion Hink, supported Domcik, to adjourn meeting. Carried. Meeting adjourned at 9:00 P.M.

RESIDENT PROTEST--Rubbish containers on Denton and Beck Rds, south of I-94 Expressway, and in the VanAllen and Denton area, located in Precinct Four of Van Buren Township, have been found tipped over and scattered. An area resident claims that delay in rubbish pickups by the township is the reason. Pickups are scheduled once a month in the area. The sight above was taken last Thursday, four days after scheduled pickup it was reported. Dogs looking for food are believed to be responsible for tipping of the rubbish containers.

Hearing Rehabilitation

The class will give special emphasis to a personal hearing test and a basic orientation to the art and skill of lipreading.

The advanced class will be offered to those persons who have had basic orientation to hearing rehabilitation and have had previous exposure to speechreading (lipreading). The main emphasis of the advanced class will be lipreading. A personal hearing test will be available for those who desire it.

4-H Club Reports Activity, Programs

NEW BOSTON--The regular monthly meeting of the Huron Valley 4-H club was held on Jan. 22, at the St. Stephens Church.

On Jan. 5, a constitution was set up by the Constitution Committee. The proposed constitution was read by Dee Dee Swirles; it was voted on and accepted by the club members.

It was agreed to use money from the treasury to purchase sweatshirts. By buying sweatshirts everyone would benefit; not just the horse members.

The club has planned to go tobogganing at Metro on Feb. 7.

At this meeting, three trip reports were given. Earlier this month, the club took a trip to the Detroit Mounted Police Stables. Michelle Viger gave a detailed report on that. Also, the electrical group went on a guided tour through the Kellogg Plant. Keith Teets told the club about the trip.

David Wojcik told the club about his trip to Washington he took last year.

Mahalak Introduces Bill On Auto Seat Belt Laws

LANSING--State Representative Edward E. Mahalak (D) Romulus has introduced a bill which will update state laws on automobile seat belts.

The law which mandates the installation of seat belts in any private passenger vehicle sold in Michigan was effective Jan. 1, 1965, and based on specifications prepared by the Society of Automotive Engineers on April 1, 1963, Mahalak explained.

"Since that time," Mahalak continues, "there have been a number of engineering changes and improvements on the installation and use of seat belts. This bill brings the old law up-to-date making it effective to Jan. 1, 1970. By doing this, we take into consideration all of the engineering improvements and certain recommended new requirements on seat belts."

The present law requires that any private passenger car manufactured after Jan. 1, 1965 (the Mahalak bill updates this to Jan. 1, 1970) and offered for sale in Michigan must be equipped with seat belts for the use of the driver and one other front seat passenger.

The safety belts and bolts and brackets used in their installation must meet the minimum specifications of the Society of Automotive Engineers as of April 1, 1963 (the Mahalak bill changes this to Jan. 1, 1970).

The law does not apply to trucks, buses, hearses, motorcycles or motordriven cycles. "This is an important highway safety bill," Mahalak said. "I am sure that I will have the support of my fellow legislators as I work to see it enacted into law as soon as possible."

The U.S. Naval Academy was moved from Annapolis, Maryland, to Newport, R.I. during the Civil War but was returned to the Maryland site at the close of the war.

Kidney Patient Is Grateful

ROMULUS—Living proof of United Foundation benefits received locally is Earl F. Grimm who was hospitalized last March, at the University of Michigan Hospital, Ann Arbor, because of a kidney failure.

It was not until August that he could be in his own home when the Rehabilitation Centre at the University, through funds from the Michigan Kidney Foundation (a Torch Drive-supported agency) was able to provide a Dialysis machine for him.

The cost of this equipment is $6,000 making it almost impossible for a stricken person to afford this life-saving help on his own.

Grimm resides at 24390 Waltz Road, with his wife, Patricia, and two young daughters, Debbie, 7, a second grade pupil at the Hannan Elementary school; and pre-schooler Dawn, who is 4.

"Pat" had to undergo eight weeks of special training to enable her to administer the five to six hour treatment to her husband. This must be done three times each week.

An entire room in their home is given over to provide a very pleasant atmosphere for this vital and tedious ordeal. Space in an average double closet is necessary to hold the required amount of supplies for only one month.

Earl, who is unable to work, is most grateful to area chairmen, doorbell ringers and all United Foundation workers and expressed the desire to one day undergo a kidney transplant. This almost human equipment will certainly be put to use another place, saving another life.

Claybron Stars In Debut

Belleville Posts League Win

SUBURBAN SIX

Teams	Won	Lost
Plymouth	5	1
Bentley	5	1
Trenton	4	2
Allen Park	2	4
Belleville	1	5
Redford Union	1	5

Joe Claybron apparently is just what Belleville needed to win basketball games.

Claybron a 6-6 senior transfer student from Willow Run High, made his debut on coach Allen Gates' team an auspicious one. He drilled in 15 points and hauled down 17 rebounds to lead Belleville to a 75-65 victory over Redford Union Friday night.

It was Belleville's first Suburban Six Conference victory in six starts. And the victory hauled the Tigers out of the league cellar into fifth place.

Coach Gates' quintet will try for two in row in the conference Friday night clashing with previously undefeated defending champ, Livonia Bentley at Bentley.

Bentley was a 91-61 upset victim of Plymouth last Friday. The two now share the league lead.

"It's good to win," said coach Gates who, along with his team, has had a frustrating time getting started. "I feel we'll be all-right from now on."

The Tigers rushed at Redford Union as if the gym was on fire. With Jim Singleton and Claybron drilling in nine and seven points, respectively they worked up a 11 point lead before cooling to a 19-16 advantage at the close of the quarter. Balanced scoring, the first time this season made the difference in the final quarter.

R. U. caught fire in the second quarter. The visitors retaliated with Gary Bevington and Kirk Taylor who helped their team to a 35-34 halftime edge.

The guests outscored their rivals 19-18 to take a basket 54-52 lead into the fourth quarter.

Belleville went on a scoring rampage in the final eight minutes and dumped their rivals with a 23-11 quarter. Balanced scoring, the first time this season, made the difference in the final quarter.

Five Belleville players hit in double figures. Singleton's 17 was tops for the team. Claybron supported his teammate with 15, Garrade Pettus and Mike Garland each had 13 and Rick Mussehl chipped in 10.

The game's individual scoring honors, however, went to Bevington, who put together 10 baskets and nine free throws for 29 points. Taylor wound up with 24.

Belleville looked its best of the season Friday night at the foul line where the Tigers turned in with 21 of 35. Redford cashed in on 15 of 33 chances.

The Tiger victory also averaged a 61-56 overtime defeat to R.U., which started Belleville's cage woes.

ACTION UNDER THE BOARDS-Wayne's Richard Fith (21) goes up to block Romulus' Charles Johnnican's layup. Johnnican cashed in on his dog shot and also collected a free throw. Romulus went on to win 65-55 Saturday night.

A Tale of Two Cities

What motivates some fans to walk away from a game, organize into groups, then proceed to commit assault, vandalism, felonious assault and murder?

You wonder...

Guess we will never know. To find the answer and the solution to the question of why people are motivated to destruction would in fact, be solving the problems which plague most of our cities today.

The question of assault and vandalism popped up close to home this week. Fans phoned after the basketball game between Wayne Memorial and Romulus Saturday night and said students were rioting.

There was no such thing, of course. But there was an ugly incident which should be brought into perspective.

Romulus won the game. That's irrelevant.

But Romulus cage "fans"—and they must be categorized as such through school authorities reject any insinuation that those involved in the following incident have anything to do with Romulus—stoned and threw bottles at buses conveying Wayne Memorial students, fans, players and coaches back to Wayne.

Windows were broken, but, according to Romulus police, no one was injured.

Police also say that they have arrested a 19-year old former Romulus High student and charged him with being a disorderly person in connection with the incident.

A team of Romulus police and officers from the Wayne County Sheriff's Department continue to investigate the incident.

"It was a pretty terrifying experience," said Wayne Basketball coach Doug Myers. "We were fortunate that no one was hurt. It could have turned out much worse than it did."

Witnesses say that there were approximately 100 persons in the mob that hurled cans and bottles at the buses.

Sports Schedule In Jeopardy

Who were they?

"They definitely were not our students," said Romulus cage coach Al Duva. "Those people are the dropouts, the troublemakers in this area but I'm positive they had nothing to do with our school."

Could be.

Some students remarked that Saturday night's attack was in retaliation to a "happening" last fall after a Wayne-Memorial-Romulus football game.

Wayne won that one.

There were reports that fans did exchange harsh words—racially derogatory remarks—but there were no reports of physical violence or bottle throwing.

No one, not even the school authorities, wants to talk about either incident.

And in many ways you can't blame them. All are trying to "cool it". And that, if possible, would be best for the two schools, the two cities.

But the message to "cool it" goes out to the students and the parents—and usually those responsible are too ignorant to understand the seriousness of their act.

It's a sign of our times: those who know better continue to obey the rules while those who need training the most continue to plague our cities.

Meanwhile, you can bet the two schools are seriously considering dropping one another from their sports schedules.

Allen J. Lams Gets Assignment

ROMULUS—Army Specialist Four Allen J. Lams, 21 son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Lams, 12500 Harrison Road, was assigned (Dec. 8) to the 864th Engineer Battalion in Vietnam, as a surveyor.

His wife, Leona, lives at 14050 Pine St. Taylor, Mich.

NOT A CHANCE

Tiger Pitcher Norm McRae did not have a fielding chance in three games with the Tigers in 1969.

Belleville Falls On League Mats

Redford Union grapplers surprised Belleville, 25-15, handing coach Tom Fritz's Tigers their first Suburban Six Conference dual meet loss of the current campaign.

Belleville, hit with ineligibility and suspension to two of its veteran matmen, fell behind after the first four matches 9-3 and didn't overcome the deficit.

Belleville's John Smith, who filled in the 123-pound slot for the first time this season and was wrestling over his weight, battled Mike Marr on equal terms, losing the match in the final 30 seconds, 5-2.

Redford Union's Bob Metz gave his team one of two five-point victories when he pinned Tony Woody in the 145 pound class. Chip Woods' 5:58 pin of Ed Jorgenson in the 137 pound category accounted for the other five-point win.

The meet result is as follows:

Hold Karate Classes In Romulus

Karate, the ancient art of self-defense, is gaining in popularity in Romulus. And spreading the word are Hyon Son Tu and Edward B. Sell, both masters and holders of Fifth Degree Black Belts in the sport.

Sell and Hyon Son Yu have set up shop in the area and also conduct classes at Romulus High School. The classes were organized thanks to the cooperation of the Romulus Parks and Recreation Department.

"We hope to get as many women and men in the program as possible," said Sell, who is the only American with a Fifth Degree Black Belt. (The color and degree signifies the proficiency of the holder).

"The art has gained in popularity for people have begun to realize the important of self defense," said Sell.

With no hope of catching Twin Valley Conference basketball leader, River Rouge, Romulus and coach Al Duva are looking ahead to the district playoffs.

Romulus' title hopes were shattered Friday night by Willow Run which registered its second straight conference victory over the Eagles 82-79.

With Rouge in command of the standings with a 3-0 record, and Romulus with a 1-3 record, the Eagles can't catch up with the leader.

Meanwhile, coach Duva's quintet routed Wayne Memorial 65-55 on Saturday. Wayne also will be one of the six teams that will compete in the district tournament to be held at Eastern Michigan University the first week of March.

In reach of his 1000th point as a prep cager, Huron's 6-7 center Rick Wasilewski poured in 37 points to lead the Chiefs to a 73-67 victory over Huron Conference basketball rival, Monroe Jefferson Friday night.

Wasilewski could reach 1000 this Friday when coach Dave Court's quintet hosts winless, last-place league foe, Airport.

"It's an auspicious occasion," said coach Court alluding to Wasilewski's bid for 1000 points. There are only a few, and I don't know of any off hand who have scored 1000 points in their high school career. And we hope to make this an unforgettable event for Rick," said Court.

Wasilewski went to town against the Monroe quintet, sinking 10 field goals and 17-of-20 free throws for 37 points. That incidentally is not Wasilewski's high. He scored a record-shattering 40 points in the holiday tournament against Roeper.

Huron had difficulty shaking Monroe, teeter-tottering most of the game before claiming its sixth league victory in nine starts. Huron was up by three 19-16, at the end of the first quarter and stayed in front 37-33 at halftime before breezing to a 59-44 lead in the third quarter.

Randy Gorham and Don

Mittlestat joined Wasilewski in the double figure column, Gorham scored on six field goals and two free throws for 14 points. Mittlestat had 11 points.

Chet Dilhelm led the losers with 21 points, one basket more than teammate Mike Boberg.

Huron had ample opportunities at the free throw line where it sank 27 of 33 shots. Jefferson slipped in 23 of 37 fouls.

Winter Sports Map Is Popular

LANSING—Snow season devotees can still obtain copies of Michigan's annual guide to frosty weather fun—the 1969-70 Michigan Winter Sports Map, William T. McGraw, Michigan Tourist Council director, announced.

Since its release in October, more than 50 thousand copies of the map have been distributed nationwide, McGraw said. The popular publication is part of the literature distributed in response to inquiries generated by the Council's national advertising and promotional programs.

Citing the location of Michigan's 73 ski, skating and tobogganing areas, the map outlines each individual winter sports area's facilities and activities. A number of resorts have added snowmobile trails and rental vehicles to their listings to accommodate the rapidly growing family sport.

Free copies of the Michigan Winter Sports Map are available from the Michigan Tourist Council, Stevens T. Mason Building, Lansing, Michigan. 48926.

Thunderbird Club Reports

ROMULUS—The Thunderbird 4-H Club held its regular monthly meeting at the Beatty home on Bog Road in Belleville, Jan. 21, at 7:30 p.m. This proved to be a very worthwhile meeting. Many things were discussed and planned for the forthcoming months.

It was decided at this meeting that the members would purchase jackets with their first name across the back with money from the treasury.

The club agreed that the recent Christmas Party that was held at the Gruden home on Huron River Drive in Romulus Dec. 17, was a success. Ideas and suggestions were given to make next year's party an even greater event.

Club members, leaders, and families are looking forward to attending the Annual Valentine's Party that is to be held, Feb. 14, at the Wayne County 4-H fairgrounds.

The Thunderbird 4-H Club will be sponsoring the Awards Banquet for the Wayne County Gold Medal Winners. It will be held on Thursday, (Feb. 19) at 6:30 p.m. at the Romulus Progressive Club Hall, Romulus.

of Romulus' scoring powers. Johncan sank six field goals and eight free throws for the game high of 20. Nesbit accounted for 16 points on five buckets and six free throws.

Also managing double figures for Romulus was center Roy Szyndlar who had 12.

Wayne had a pair of 18-point shooters in Don Bates and Jim Green.

Romulus blew a 10 point fourth quarter lead in its 82-79 loss to Willow Run. Ahead at the end of the first three quarters, 23-22 42-38, and 60-55, the Eagles couldn't stop Jim Whitefield who found the range and sank 10 points in the last frame to spark the Flyers' rally.

Nesbit, looking his best this season, came up with 21 points and Szyndlar, scoring a career high of 19 points, combined with always reliable Johncan, who had 17 to keep the Eagles offense clicking.

Whitefield, however, was the key to the game. He scored 28 points that turned the tide and kept the Flyers' championship dreams alive.

Romulus also looked its best at the free throw line where it capitalized on 15 of its 21 shots. Willow Run made 10 of 21 chances.

Early Penny Pinching Causes Landlord Woes

In apartment construction, a penny saved won't earn much—except tenant dissatisfaction and high maintenance costs.

That's the advice a veteran property manager has for builder-owners who might be tempted to "pinch pennies" when building apartments.

O. Ellsworth Stevens, executive vice-president of the J. Walter Jones Management Corp. of Baltimore, Md., has helped manage more than 5,000 apartment units.

He has found that maintenance problems and excessive operational costs can generally be traced to "penny pinching" by the builder during initial stages of planning and construction.

On the other hand, Stevens believes that "intelligent purchasing of quality products pays off in the long run for apartment owners."

It reduces maintenance expenses, and—by improving apartment appeal and liveability—keeps tenant turnover to a minimum.

Stevens' ideas qualify him as a friend to landlord and tenant alike. He's anti materials and equipment that look cheap, operate poorly and require constant and costly upkeep. He's pro products that cost a little more, but look good, wear well and need minimal maintenance.

For example:

Doors with eye-appeal, such as wood panel entries, add "character" to apartments. For tenants, these features provide a touch of the warmth and charm of single-family homes.

For owners, availability of quality units, such as ponderosa pine panel doors in stock sizes and a variety of styles, makes elegant exterior and interior doors a practical choice. The doors are factory-treated with a chemical preservative to guard against wear and weather abuse.

Public hallways that are plastered or painted need constant repair. Masonry or shoulder-high paneling are preferable. Prefinished hardboard wall panels, for example, need no painting, are highly resistant to dents, marks and scuffs, and can be damp-wiped clean.

Flooring—especially in public areas—should be able to withstand hard use. Where carpeting is used in individual apartments, it should look good, stand up to frequent cleanings, and be a neutral color.

Kitchens should be bright, well-ventilated, with good cabinet and countertop space. Two-door refrigeratorfreezers should be standard for moderately-priced apartments; cost-free units for luxury rentals. Dishwashers should work well with a minimal amount of water.

Bathrooms should have attractive, easy-clean tile, quality fixtures, and—where feasible—glamor features such as double lavatories and glass-enclosed tubs.

Light fixtures are high on the "penny pinching" list. But Stevens warns that cheap switches don't last, unattractive fixtures set a "low-tone" for the whole building, and insufficient wattage makes security-conscious tenants uncomfortable.

Hardware is one of the most economical methods of "decorating." Yet, says Stevens, builders are "notorious for skimping here." Attractive doorknobs, cabinet pulls, latches and hinges cost only a little more but add "quality touches" to even moderately-priced apartments.

Unusual Decorations Add To Bedrooms Use

Imagination some glue nails wallpaper sheets and towels these can add up to some very unusual decorating ideas.

Restonic Corp. and designer Karl Steinhauser have taken these ingredients and put them to work in the bedroom.

This room, they feel, need no longer be used only for sleeping. It should be a "living" room and Restonic shows you how to make it such.

The firm has six room settings on display in the American Furniture Mart as part of the "America at Home" program. Ideas incorporated into the room settings are compiled into a useful "Guide to Duplicating" which the firm is making available to the public.

Steinhauser, an internationally-known interior designer, has taken Restonic's bedding products and furniture and home furnishings from five other firms to create rooms that are distinctive, attractive and most of all functional.

Ceiling Bolsters Decor

Crown your room's decor with an unusual eye-catching ceiling.

In many homes, the only ceiling decoration used to complement a room's furnishings is the light fixture. Today's designers, however, are casting their eye upwards and creating a new look for the ceiling that changes the entire focal concept of a room.

One designer encircled a light fixture with pieces of wallpaper cut into arcs and affixed in a disconnected pattern. Another emphasized the fixture by outlining it with small pictures.

Wallpaper strips are used by a third designer to create a new architectural look—without having to have the room reconstructed.

Fake beams are another popular design idea for ceilings. The beams can be fixed permanently or for easy removal.

Fabric is another design idea used by decorators—to add color, warmth and originality.

One designer has covered a whole ceiling with a floral bed sheet. It can be sponged clean or can be removed and thrown into the washer and dryer before rehanging.

Other designers have taken only one or two lengths of fabric and formed a canopy over a bed, an unusual "cover" for a sofa or a matching top for almost any upholstery piece.

Bright paint has been used for many years to enliven and enlarge a room with dark paint selected to minimize space and create a smaller, cozier room.

How to best top off your room? Let your imagination be your guide!

Today's newly patterned sheets are also put to multiple uses as curtains, as ceiling decorations to decorate door panels, to form a bed canopy.

The handy duplicating guide shows how to utilize these ideas as well as stimulating your imagination to design your own uses for the materials involved.

Marketing research has shown that many women find it difficult to equate size, value and decorating ideas and apply them to their own home, said Gordon Fitzgerald, president of Restonic. "Our rooms are aimed at making this job easier for them by bringing together a vast variety of decorating ideas that are workable, attractive and easy to implement."

Petitpren Chairs Hearings

State Representative Vincent Petitpren, chairman of the House Committee on Colleges and Universities announced recently that his committee held a hearing February 2nd on a bill which would establish Oakland University as a separate, autonomous institution of higher learning—House Bill 3896).

If passed by the Legislature, this bill would set July 1, 1970, as the effective date for separation from Michigan State University, Oakland's current "mother-institution". According to Chairman Petitpren, such a separation would be a logical extension of a process begun long ago by MSU's Board of Trustees.

"The MSU Board of Trustees," said Petitpren, "has permitted the Oakland branch a great deal of independence during the past few years. As a result, Oakland has distinguished itself as a strong and creative institution."

Supporters of the bill argue that institutional autonomy will result in a broader and more visible academic program. They also believe that independence tends to increase an institution's responsiveness to needs of the community and state it serves.

More orderly growth, a better division of resources and increased educational opportunity will also be byproducts of the separation, say the proponents. The State Board of Education has already given its support to such a move.

WALTER BRENNAN and Brandon de Wilde in a scene from the first presentation on the Children's Movie of the Month program which is "The Boy and the Laughing Dog".

Hudson's Sponsors Children's Movies

The J. L. Hudson Company will present the Children's Movie Of The Month, from March to June, a series of four wholesome motion pictures for children in conjunction with ten Detroit area theatres.

The ten participating theatres include: Adams, downtown Detroit Royal Oak, Royal Oak Eastland, Eastland Center, Quo Vadis, Westland, Gateway, Sterling Heights, Village, Troy, Wyandotte-Main Wyandotte, Terrace, Livonia, and Mt. Clemens-Jewel Mt. Clemens.

Joining in the announcement at a press conference luncheon at the Detroit Press Club were CMM president Harvey Chertok and Herman Zuckerman executive vice-president.

Beginning Feb. 9 the Hudson Ticket Service at the Downtown Northland Eastland, Westland, Oakland and Pontiac stores will offer parents an exclusive opportunity to purchase subscription tickets good for all four films—child or adult, for only $2.50. In addition to mail and telephone orders, tickets may be picked up at all J. L. Hudson box offices.

Following are the four films (each to be accompanied by two Warner Brothers color cartoons) to be shown on Saturday, March 21, Saturday, April 18, Saturday May 16 and Saturday, June 13 — 520 performances per day — 1 p.m. and 3 p.m.

1. In March: From Warner Brothers: "The Boy and the Laughing Dog" starring Walter Brennan and Phil Harris. Brandon deWilde, Sidney Poitier, William Hopper and Louise Beavers.

2. In April: From 20th Century-Fox: "The Blue Bird" starring Shirley Temple, Spring Byington and Nigel Bruce.

3. In May: From 20th Century-Fox: "Smiley" starring Sir Ralph Richardson, John McCallum, "Chips" Rafferty and Colin Peterson as "Smiley".

4. In June: From Warner Brothers: "Gay Purr-er" starring the voices of Judy Garland and Robert Goulet and the voices of Red Buttons, Hermione Gingold and Paul Frees.

Commenting on the purpose of CMM Chertok noted, "We live in a society where intelligent parents are vitally concerned about broadening educational horizons for their children. Why should we expect less from their entertainment? Therefore we have set as our purpose the introduction of a series of wholesome and enlightening movies that will appeal to a child's extraordinary capacity to learn, to wonder and to laugh."

"Accordingly," Zuckerman added "for those parents who seek quality entertainment for their children, The Children's Movie Of The Month will offer consistently worthwhile cinema experiences such as these four fine films which will be presented beginning in March by Hudson's."

Various organizations within the community which are concerned about movies for children and have offered their encouragement and support to The Children's Movie Of The Month program.

Sperber To Direct Kafka's 'The Castle'

Milo Sperber has returned to Oakland University's Meadow Brook Theatre to direct the first English language version of Franz Kafka's 'The Castle' to be presented in the United States. This production will open a four week run on Thursday, February 12 at 8:15 P.M.

The Castle exposes a world of muffled threats, an insane bureaucracy and hints of disaster that foreshadows the era of contemporary playwrights Pinter and Durrenmatt. "Because Kafka's writing appeals more to the imagination than to memory, this adaptation of his famous novel moves easily to the stage," Sperber said.

Sperber directed the successful Meadow Brook productions of No Exit and The Firebugs during the 1967-68 Season when he was also a member of the faculty of the Academy of Dramatic Art at Oakland.

Tickets for The Castle and the current Hedda Gabler may be purchased at Hudson's, the Meadow Brook Theatre box office or call 962-0353/377-2700.

Partnerless Parents Convene At Glenn

WESTLAND—The Wayne-Westland chapter No. 340, Parents Without Partners, will meet on Wednesday, Feb. 4, 8:30 p.m. at John Glenn High School.

"Transplants" will be the topic of this week's meeting to be held in room 136, the Conference Room.

Bob Miller will highlight his discussion with a film, "Close the Door St. Peter, I'm Not Ready Yet."

The high school is located on Marquette, two blocks west of Wayne Road and one-half mile south of Ford Road.

For further information, phone 261-6799 728-4064, or 421-6353.

Ice Capades Has Star-Studded Cast

The 30th edition of Ice Capades will feature five Olympic, World's and National Champions when it opens March 10 at Olympia Stadium for 17 performances through March 22.

Topping the list of champions is 22-year-old Wolfgang Schwarz, the 1968 Olympia Gold Medalist from Austria. Schwarz and Linda Carbonetto, the 1969 Canadian National Champion, will be making their first tour with the show.

They'll be joined by veteran Capades' principles

Tommy Litz, a former world titleholder, and the team of Margot and Dianne, ex-olympic Bronze Medalists.

Capades is the only ice show to employ "Multi-Vision" and a "Magic Screen." These devices incorporate live and filmed action as the performers dash in and out of a motion picture screen. The screen is made out of a material which allows skaters to actually break through it at a precise moment and coincide with the action seen on film.

Among the seven production numbers in the show are "Love, Love, and More Love," in which a dismal world is transformed into one of happiness, hearts and flowers with the aid of a giant container of "love spray;" "Indian Splendor," depicting the pageantry of the American Indian culture; and "Welcome to our World," an invitation to a world of fantasy from Mayor Rabbit.

Providing the comedy will be Hans Leiter, Capades' top funnyman; Dave Pitts and his chimpanzee partner, Spanky; and the trampoline-diving routines of Vic Zoble.

Tickets for the show are $5, $4 and $3 and are available at Olympia and all major Hudson stores.

Casting Sessions Announced

The University of Detroit Theatre 113 announces auditions for its production of the Sandy Wilson musical Comedy, "The Boy Friend" on Monday and Tuesday, (Feb. 16 and 17) at 7:30 p.m.

Casting sessions, to be held in the Ford Life Sciences Building, are open to all members of the community, but those planning to try out for the musical should prepare a selection from the show for the audition.

Musicians are also needed for the production. Contact director Dominic Missimi for further information at 342-1000, extension 207.
